RIOT CALLS IN CHICAGO.

POLICE CALLED OUT THREE TIMES ON SATURDAY NIGHT. Four Mea Hurt Seriously During the Evening Rouses Stoned by a Popocratic Meb Pretending to Parade-Another Fing Burned in Missourt-Other Violence. CHICAGO, Nov. 1,-Mob violence by drunken and frenzied silverites has kept this city in a state of excitement for a week, and many good aftizens still fear that election day will not pass without the sacrifice of life. No Republican gathering during the last week of the campaign has been free from attack by lawless men, who openly revile American institutions, and particularly the American flag. The police have been singularly inactive. Why this is the case eannot be explained, unless it be that Chief of Police Badenoch fears to have his men sail in and give the miscreants their just deserts, because the l'opecrats would raise the "coercion" ery and injure the cause of McKinley and Hobart. That the course adopted by the Popo-crats will cost Bryan thousands of votes in Chicago there is no doubt.

Robert Emmett Burke and his Popocratio friends paraded on the south, north, and west sides last night, just to show the public their disregard for police permits. The Chicago trades unionists, about twenty-five strong, led the procession, after which came the Carter Harrison Association, about 250 strong, followed by the First Ward Popocratio Club with about 150 men. The line of march led along Clark, Jackson, State, and Randolph streets on the south side, in Clark as far as Erie on the north side, and in Madison to Halsted on the west side. There was little order preserved, except on the part of the Carter Harrison Association, and the rear of the procession was made up of a most metly aggregation.

The Popocrats made up for the fizzle of their proposed big parade by acts of ruffianism and vandalism in various parts of the city. Armed with rifles, clubs, canes, and carrying cobble stones, bricks, and bags containing pepper and lampblack, they terrorised residents and pedestrians of aristocratic Ashland Boulevard, from Adams to Congress streets. After throwing pepper and lampblack into the faces of half a dozen pedestrians and breaking hundreds of dollars' worth of window glass, the gang of disturbers wound up in the Eighteenth ward, where there were three riots before midnight.

The following were injured in the fight incident to rioting: Hugh Murray, 164 West Van Buren street, scalp wound; Richard Porter, Liberty Bell Lodging House, nose broken; E. J. Proctor, Commercial Hotel, left arm broken at elbow; Roger Converse, Twenty-fourth and Sawyer, scalp wound.

Damage was done to the following property by missles: William J. Chalmers, 234 Ashland Boulevard, library window pierced by bullet; W. J. Wilson, 190 Ashland Boulevard, parlor window broken by cobble stone; Thomas Chaimers, parlor window broken; D. J. Scully, Congrees street and Ashland Boulevard, parlor window broken; Lewis Rush, Congress street and Ashland Boulevard, parlor window broken. Gangs of Bryan shouters, after pelting houses with stones and bricks wherever portraits of McKinley and Hobart were displayed, disbanded at the sight of policemen. The damage to indows and parlor bric-à-brac is estimated at $2,000. The rioters met again in front of the Eighteenth Ward Democratic Headquarters, West Madison street, near Union, where the mob swelled to 2,000, and three times during the evening riot calls were sent to the Desplaines atreet police station.

The headquarters of the Eighteenth ward silver Democrats and Republicans are nearly opposite each other, and the crowds which hang about both places came together three times before midnight. Adam Meichbeck was arrested on orders from Capt. Mahoney, who released two others whom policemen sent to the station in a patrol wagon. At 6:30 o'clock Uapt. Mahoney of the Desplaines street station received a telephone message that some trouble was in progress at Madison and Union streets. and he sent a detail of a half dozen policemen was between rival political forces. In a few minutes a couple of the fighters were sent to the station, and it was thought that the trouble was at an end. A free-silver advocate had gone into the ward headquarters of the Republicans and sought to argue the situation with the occupants of the place. He soon found that he was in allen territory, for he was set upon and severely beaten by an ardent advocate of McKinley. Capt. Mahoney thought the silverite had received enough punishment, and after administering a lecture allowed both to depart. Hardly had the men returned to the seat of war when "Big Jim" Perry soon had the two lines of battle in action. In a moment there was a grand rush for the centre of the roadway from both sides. Haif a dozen fist fights took place, and another message was sent to the Desplaines street station. This time a dozen policemen were sent to keep the peace.

For two hours there was comparative onless Then a speaker for the Republican crowd arrived in a carriage, and that was the signal for the renewal of hostilities. The Popocrats swept across the street, and were soon in the land of the Republicans. The carriage was surrounded before the friends of the eccupant knew what was going on. Suddenly there was an exodus of Republicans from the hall and another grand mix up. It rained fists for a few minutes, and Police Sergeant Jackman, who had been detailed at the centre of the disturbances, sent another call to the station for policemen. This time a dozen more were sent, and for the balance of the night they found plenty to do. Many promiseuous clashes occurred, but none so serious as to involve injury to any of the contestants. The four who had been injured in the last collision were taken to drug stores in the neighborhood. None but Murray was sent to the hospital. Patrick Fenton, 3501 State street, was shot in the back and dangerously wounded during row in Thomas Enright's restaurant, 1801 State street, at midnight. James Kinney, a cabman, was cut in the arm in the same row. Fenton was taken to the Mercy Hospital. Fenton, Joseph Garrity, and James Ryan, with Kinney, it said, had been drinking freely during the evening before they entered Enright's place. They talked politics loudly while standing at the bar. They were joined by a fourth man whose name the police did not learn last night, and he took part in the dispute over campaign lasues. The entire party finally went back into the restaurant adjoining the saloon and continued the debate there, finally getting in s quarrel that bade fair to become a free fight.

It is said Fenton tried to pull a McKinley button from the fourth man's coat. The latter threw a cup at Fenton, which missed him and struck Kinney on the forehead, cutting him

By an apparent general understanding all over the Western States, the same tactics as used by Chicago Popocrats have been pursued. Following the riotous conduct of Bryan Democrats at Fayette, Mo., in their reception to Gens. Palmer and Buckner, comes news of similar and even worse outrages in other parts of that State and elsewhere in the West. At Pleasant Hill, Cass county, Mo., amid the cheers and jeers of several hundred people, the Stars and Stripes were burned yesterday afternoon by Popocratic followers of William J. Bryan.

At 3:30 o'clock the sound-money expedition that left St. Louis last Wednesday on a special train over the Missouri Pacific for a three days' tour through Missouri and Kansas, pulled into Pleasant Hill from Harrisonville. A Bryan demonstration was being held in the town, a place of 3,500 inhabitants, and the sight of the sound-money crowd set the Bryanites wild with rage. After the train had backed up to the station a small amount of literature was distributed, and then little Ollie Wheeler, the five-yearold daughter of Samuel Wheeler, and who had been singing sound-money songs on the trip, stepped upon the rear platform of the coach bearing in her hand a small flag. Almost in-stantly a man carrying a Bryan banner reached for the flag, but Mr. Wheeler interfered and took it from his daughter to preserve it. He held possession of thonly a few seconds, howner enatched the flag and carried it a few feet distant to a spot where the mob was burning the literature that had been distributed and the flag was consigned to the flames. Then, as if not satisfied, the fire was stirred until the last vestige of the flag had been consumed and the mob sent up an exultant cheer. The act attracted hundreds to the scene, but very few had the courage to denounce it. One wearer of a Bryan button, however, tore it from his coat and threw it to the ground, remarking:

ever, when another man carrying a Bryan ban-

"This is an appailing disgrace and I'll never be caught in another Bryan crowd." He was followed by half a dozen other marchers, who were not prepared to endorse the act. but outside of this handful of people the disgraceful proceeding was heartily approved.

A number of students of Franklin, Ind., College with free-silver tendencies climbed into the beifry yesterday and tore down a decoration of the national colors which had been put up in honor of flag day. The decoration consisted of bunting. Some Republicans had pasted lithographs of McKinley on the slate roof of the tower. This display aroused the ire of the members of the free-silver college club, and they made an attack on the tower at once. The flags and bunting were torn to pieces, but the embryonic Anarchists seemed content with thus desecrating the national colors, and did not harm the McKinley pictures. The gang were then met by President Scott, who ordered them from the building and censured them for their unpatriotic attack on the national flag. After their ejection from the college they paraded the streets and waved the torn pieces of red, white and blue in the eyes of the McKinleyites. The rioters were soundly hissed, and narrowly escaped personal violence in one or two in-

Mark Hanna's flags were torn down and trampled in the dust of the rooms of the Madison circuit and district courts at Anderson, Ind. They were removed by the Judges and their deputies, and Judge Diven said he did not care who knew it. He said the so-called flags on paper, with McKinley and Hobart's likenesses across the stripes, were not the national emblem, and they should never stay in his court room. Judge Ellison's deputy, Daniel Boland, pulled down the alleged flag in the circuit courts. At Lancaster, near Columbus, O., last night Bryan adherents hurled boulders through plate glass store windows and windows of private residences where portraits of McKinley and Hobart were displayed, doing several hundred dollars' damage.

USED A FIRE ENGINE IN A RUSE. The Police Couldn't Disperse a Midnight

Mob in Williamsport, Pa. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Nov. 1 .- The riotous days of the "Sawdust war" in this city many years ago were revived between midnight and 1:30 o'clock this morning. At midnight Court street was packed full of Republicans and Democrats who had participated in the big political demonstrations, and revelry was ram-pant. Shortly before this Chief of Police Wise had backed his horse into a crowd on Pine street and was greeted with oaths and catcalls. The Chief then rode into Court street and a great crowd assembled about him. Eight policemen were with him and arrested men until the police cells were full, in a vain attempt to break up the crowd.

As the Court House clock struck 12, the Chief rose in his saddle and addressed the crowd, commanding them to disperse, but he was greated with a storm of leers and curses. Instead of charging through he retreated, and was followed by the mob, who continued their recations. Mayor Mansel was informed. and decided to send a hose cart to the scene and delugs the mob with water, but reconsidered, and had a fire engine sent out as a ruse. It worked, and the crowd followed, but quickly returned. Then Police Captain Worrall and a squad charged the crowd, and by dint of "club persuasion" dispersed them, but only after numerous arrests. Not in fifteen years has the law been so defied here.

FATAL POLITICAL WRANGLE. A Motorman Dies of Injuries Received in

ment on a Prairie avenue trolley car late last night caused a fracas which resulted to-day in the death of Motorman Joseph Starr. Ryan threatened to eject him. Late Motorman Starr seized Moseley, and they left the car and fought on the sidewalk.

Starr walked bome after the fight, but became unconscious early this morning and died at noon. Moseley was arrested. An autopsy and inquest will be held to-morrow. Starr leaves a widow and two small children.

Rowdles Stone a Sound-Money Parade. BELLEVILLE, N. J., Nov. 1 .- The parade and nass meeting of the Republicans last night was one of the liveliest of the campaign, and at one time a riot seemed imminent. At the corner of William street the paraders were attacked by some rowdies with a volley of stones and eggs. Among those hurt were G. H. Sandford, a color pearer, and Roger Brett, a member of the Nereld Boat Club. No arrests were made.

GOWDY'S FINAL ESTIMATE. Sure of 25,000 Plurality in Indiana for

McKinley. INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.-Chairman Gowdy of the Republican State Committee this afternoon furnished the following signed statement:

"A conservative estimate of the situation at this time shows that Indiana will give a Republican plurality of not less than 25,000, and if, as we have reason to believe, a large per cent, of the silent vote is cast for the Republican ticket, the plurality may reach 60,000.

"The Republican organization in Indiana is so compact and perfect in every detail that we do not believe that any attempt by the advocates of free silver, by corruption or other methods, can effect any material change in the situation. "The Republicans will elect all of the thircen Congressmen, sixty-one members of the lower House of the General Assembly, and sixout of the twenty-five Senators to elect. With the nineteen Republican hold-over Senators this will give us thirty-five in the Senate. majority of twenty. The Republicans will have a majority of twenty-two in the House, giving us a majority on joint ballot of fortytwo. This will insure the election of a Republican to the United States Senate to succeed Daniel W. Voorbees."

10 CHURCH; NO SPEECE.

The Visitors Come from Detroit and Shook Hands with the Major After Services-One of the McKinley Force Figures Out a Plurality of 1,152,000.

CANTON, O., Nov. 1 .- The last Sunday of the campaign brought a delegation to the home of Major McKinley, and had he been disposed, as were the local Popocratic managers, who held a mass meeting with a woman orator, he might have made an address. But he did not, Instead he sent his visitors to church, where he went himself, and afterward merely shook hands with them at his home. The delegation was composed of 100 young men, representing the First Voters' Club of 1,500 members of Detroit, Mich. They came and went by regular boat and train. Aside from a short drive and a walk for exercise, the Major remained at home to-day with Mrs. McKinley, who, although not in as good health as she has been most of the time since returning to Canton last spring, was so much better than she was last week that she was able to be out of bed the greater part of the day. The suspense resta lightly on Major McKinley apparently. He looks the picture of health, says he feels well, and is to all appearances in a most cheerful frame of Cantonians enjoyed the quiet of te-day, which followed the excitement of weeks past, and pleasantly anticipated another quiet day to-morrow. Nearly every one in the city is engaged in some sort of preparation for election day and night. Until the result is known there will be little business done in Canton. Joseph P. Smith, Ohio State Librarian under McKinley, who has been conducting such of the national campaign work as has been done in Canton, and whose claims may be regarded as those of his chiefs, gave THE SUN reporter this evening an estimate of the pluralities in the different States, as reported to him by the party leaders in the various States. Mr. Smith claims an unprecedented popular vote for McKinley and Hobart. Exclusive of four States claimed by both parties, he estimates the Republican plu-rality at 1,152,000. Following is his table:

BRYAN'S SOMNOLENT DAY. He Sleeps Long and Hard at His Lincoln

Home-Out Again Te-day. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 1 .- A long sleep this afternoon and a longer one to-night was William J. Bryan's way of preparing for his flying trip through Nebraska to-morrow. The unprecedented campaign of the candidate practically ended this morning when he stepped from his private car "Idler," furnished by the Democratic National Committee in the Burlington station here. He and Mrs. Bryan spent last night in Council Bluffs and rode over to Omaha this morning on an electric car to take the 8:30 train for Lincoln, to which the "Idler" was attached.

About 200 people were waiting for Mr. Bryan here. They gave him a Sunday morning encer, and many shook bands with him as he walked smilingly to the carriage in waiting. There was a joyous scene, of course, at the Bryan resi dence when the three children of the candidate velcomed their father and mother.

Mr. Bryan was tired and went to bed soon after reaching home. He slept until supper time, and retired early to-night to secure a good rest for to-morrow's journey. His own State of Nebraska was selected by Mr. Bryan for the final rally of the free-silver forces.

The confidence he has felt that he would carry the State was his reason for not making a tour within its boundaries earlier in the campaign. The long and hard work of Mr. Bryan began with his departure from Chicago on July 13, the Monday following his nomination. From that time to this he has been on the go, barring three weeks spent in Lincoln prior to his departure for New York city to be formally notified of his selection as the Popocratic standard bearer, and a week in the quiet surroundings of Upper Red Hook. His hardest day of the campaign was that during which he made the journey from Chicago to Pittsburgh, en route to the notification meeting. He left Chicago half an hour before midnight, and made speeches almost continuous ly from that time until he concluded his last address to a Pittsburgh audience, twenty-four hours later. That record-breaking trip was made during the terrible heated spell of last summer and left the candidate pretty well exhausted. The second hardest day included southern Illinois, Indiana, and Kentucky. Starting from St. Louis early in the morning he talked to many gatherings along his route, and was obliged to deliver four more speeches on his arrival at Louisville at night.

Twenty-seven was the number of spee made on his journey from Chicago to Pitts-burgh, and he came within one of equalling that remarkable record one day in Michigan last month.

He went as far north as Duluth, Minn. and as far south as Memphis, Tenn., while the Atlantic coast was covered from North Carolina to Maine.

How many miles Mr. Bryan will have travelled when he returns to Liucoln again on Tuesday morning after his Nebraska round-up has not been accurately computed, but some of those who accompanied him intend to delve out the correct figures by a careful study of railroad maps and tables of distances. Seventeen thousand miles is an approximate estimate. The Popocratio candidate visited twenty-seven States, namely:

Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas (passing through in the night from Lincoln to Kansas City). Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachu-setta, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Onio, Pennsylvania South Dakota, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vir ginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. He also made a speech in the District of Columbia. James T. Dahlman of Omaha, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, will have charge of the Nebraska campaign to-morrow. James O'Shea of the State Committee and a number of compaign orators, incidding sev-

Mr. Bryan will leave Lincoln on the "Idler" at 6:45 A. M., and is due in Omaha at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Bryan will accompany her husband. The entire journey will be made over the Burlington road. Mr. Bryan sent the following despatch to-

CLEVELAND GOES DUCK HUNTING. He Will Not Be in Washington on Tuesday Night to Meccive the Election Returns.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 .- President Cleveland left Washington to-night, and it is understood that he has gone off on one of his periodical gunning expeditions in the lower Potomac River and the Chesapeake Bay. The fact that Commander Lamberton of the navy, who is on duty in the Lighthouse Board, also left the city to-night indicates that the President has embarked upon one of the lighthouse tenders, the Violet or some other Government craft with a floral name. Commander Lamberton is a jolly sea-dog, and is full of anecdote and good cheer. and he has been the companion of the President on previous occasions of a similar nature. At the White House no information on the subject can be gleaned, because it is a rule of the President to permit no one about the mansion to explain or comment upon his gunning or fishing excursions. It is understood, however, that it s his intention to be absent until Wednesday, the day after the election. Under the circum stances the arrangements for receiving the election returns at the White House on Tuesday night will be cancelled.

The apparent indifference on the part of the President as to the result of the election occasions some surprise, because it was supposed that he is so deeply interested in the fate of the nation at this juncture that he would remain at the helm of the ship of state on election day, and not be content to cruise on an insignificant lighthouse tender while his beloved countrymen are recording their verdict at the polls. While his presence in Washington on election day would not affect the result, his absence in search of ducks shows that his interest in the "dear people" and their welfare is languishing as his term of office draws to a close

MIGHTY CAMPAIGN WAIL. Popullet Chairman Washburn Cries Fraud

addressed "To the Voters of the United States," was issued to-day by George F. Washburn, Chairman of the Chicago branch of the People's Party National Executive Committee:

"The startling statement of Republican leaders, such as Lauterbach of New York, 'that they may not abide by the results,' and of Senator Henderson threatening armed resistance if Bryan wins, and of Theodore Roosevelt that he may lead a regiment to war if Bryan is elected, and the open boast of Republican leaders that if the election is close it will be contested, backed by Grover Cleveland and the Federal Government in their effort to repeat what was mulished when Tilden was elected, together with the well-known fact that the Republican corruption fund of millions of dollars is to be used on election day in purchasing Election Boards, falsifying returns, and buying up voters in a wholesale manner, and that spercion will be resorted to by merchants, manufacturers, and other employers, who will intimidate their employees to vote for McKinley, render it necessary that we put the people on unpatriotic, and revolutionary attempts of heming men to debauch and steal the nation, we feel justified in issuing this warning to the American people. "First, pay no attention whatever to sensational reports, whether they affect the candidate, public speakers, or others. Whatever the character, brand them as lies, vote early, mark one ticket only, work hard, and bring out your friends. Avold controversies at the polls and see that watchers are at every voting place watching for fraud. Watch the ballot boxes until the votes are all counted and the tally sheets made up and signed. Remember that it is in the midnight hours the frauds are perpe trated.

" Second, the New York Journal offers $1,000 reward and the National Democratic Committee $500 additional to any person furnishing evidence necessary for the conviction of any one attempting to bribe, coerce, or intimidate any voter in any State. The ballot is secret, and under no possible circumstances can it be known how you vote. Insist on your rights and you will be protected in them. 'Eternal vigiance is the price of liberty.'

Be steady, alert, and true, and Bryan, silver, and victory will be yours to enjoy, and by the eternal, no power on earth shall take it from you. Watch and pray on election day, and if victory crown our efforts, assemble in every village, town, and city to proclaim the good news and celebrate the advent of a new era.

"GEORGE F. WASHBURN, Chairman Chicago Branch People's Party National Executive Committee."

Forecasting the result of the election in its bearing on the probable strength of the People's party in both houses of Congress, Chairman Washburn said to a reporter for the United Associated Presses: "One of the interesting results of the election will be the number of Congressmen which the Populists will have in the next House and Senate. In order to secure fusion in the different States on the electoral tickets and completely harmonize the silver forces, fusion was not only arranged upon Congressmen, but also upon many State tickets, and as a result of this work. if Bryan is elected, the Populists will have between sixty and seventy electors; between twenty and thirty Congressmen, several United States Senators, Governors and other members of State tickets in several States, as well as members of the Legislature and county official by the hundred. This will more thoroughly entrench and establish our party than all that has been accomplished during the last six years. "We now have the balance of power in the Senate, and, should the Democrats capture the next House, it is to be expected that there will be a gold defection of Democratic Congress. men, who will unite with the Republicans in fighting silver. Should this occur, the faithful allies will be the Populists, who may hold the balance of power in the lower house, just as we do in the Senate.

"With Mr. Bryan as President he will be greatly embarrassed in the next session of Congress by the gold Democrats in their effort to batruct silver legislation. We shall therefore need to begin at once to prepare for the fight two years hence in order that he may be supported by a Congress in full sympathy with his

Betting on McKinley in Germany. BERLIN, Nov. 1 .- Considerable betting on the result of the American Presidential election was done on the Berlin Bourse toward the close of yesterday's session, the odds in favor of Mo-Kinley's success running up to 4 to 1.

LITTLE BETS THE RULE. THIS YEAR'S CAMPAIGN A POOR

Fifth Avenue Botel Deserted by Politicians Last Night-Billy Edwards Indulges to Reminiscences of the Big Bets of '88-Two or Three Small Ventures Yesterday.

ONE FOR THE SPECULATORS.

A strange sight to the old timers who have been through many political campaigns was afforded at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday and last evening. Never before on the Sunday before any election, and especially before an election for President, were the corridors of that hotel so deserted. Most of the people who did find their way to the hotel were newspaper reporters.

The only politicians to be seen in the corridors were the members of the Republican National Committee and Chairman C. W. Hackett of the Republican State Committee, all of whom live at the hotel. All were glad the work was over and were sure the fight was overwhelmingly

The betting fraternity were not in sight There was McKinley money waiting for them if they had Bryan money, but there was no chance offered to put up more than a few thousand doilars of it. The Republican State and County headquarters were closed. Executive Chairman Odell went home yesterday to look after his campaign for Congress and to vote at Newburgh to-morrow. Ex-Senator Platt left for Owego, where he will cast his ballot.

"This has been a campaign of piking bets," said Billy Edwards disgustedly. Billy has, as commissioner, placed many thousands of dollars on election results in former years, and in 1888 and 1892 he had no difficulty in getting plenty of money placed on the general result. "This year," said he as he sat in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, waiting for some Bryan bettor to appear, " there seems to be no desire on the part of the Democrats to back their candidates. The few who are willing to bet are shy of putting their money on the general result even at long odds. They have all sorts of other slide issues which they want to make, like pluralities in this State and city, combinations on a certain number of States, and some want to gamble on the number of electoral votes Mc-Kinley and Bryan will get. I have heard of one offer of even money on the plurality of the popular vote.

"This year I have made no big bets and have only heard of one or two. The biggest, I think, was $10,000 to $2,000 on McKinley; that was made in Wall street. Eighty-eight was the year of big betting. Wagers of $10,000 and $20,000 were common in that eampaign. Things were not very slow in 1892, either. The odds were on Harrison that year up to two weeks before election, and then they stayed at even for a while, finally going to odds on Cleveland which got up to 5 to 4. Oh, didn't the Democrats make money that year. I put up $35,000 for one man in two bets in one day on Cleveland. Another man who had $18,000 up against $20,000 and won it was Tom Patten. The bookmakers won a boodle, too, I have been told that Richard Croker won more than $100.000 on Cleveland's election. Ed Kearney was another heavy Cleveland winner. This year, I hear. Ed is with McKinley.

"It has been said that the bookmakers aren't doing much with election betting this year They are not so lively as they were, but I hear that Joe Ulman has about $20,000 up in various ways, and that Wheelock has placed on a lot of moner."

Among others who lost some money in 1892 was F. C. McLowee, Ex-Postmaster-General Don. M. Dickinson got $10,000 of it.

Among the biggest bets made here during this campaign is $9,000 against $2,000, placed by F. H. Brooks of 7 Wall street.

National Committeeman Scott said yesterday that he had heard that Stratton of Colorado Springs had withdrawn his offer to bet $100,000 against $300,000 on Bryan's election "I notified Stratton on Saturday afternoon, said he yesterday, "that our $300,000 would be guard. In consideration of these un-American, put up to-morrow as soon as we could get a stakeholder, the Chemical Bank having refused to accept that place. I got no word from him i reply, and only learned indirectly to-day that Stratton had withdrawn his offer."

The few bets made yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel follow

R. Mack bet $100 even with a Mr. Lawrence that McKinley would not have 200,000 plurality in this State. Billy Edwards got another $100 even on the proposition that McKinley's plurality in the State will not be 250,000. A Bryan man left $160 with John Webb, the cigar man. to bet at odds of 1 to 4 on the general result. The money was promptly covered by C. M. Reed of Erie, Pa. Secretary William Leary of the Park Board bet William McMurtrie Speer $25 even that McKinley will carry all of twentytwo States which he named. The list includes Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, North Carolina, West Virginia, Kentucky, South Dakota, Maryland, and Nebraska. Gen. Powell Clayton of the National Committee announced last evening that he has an opportunity to indulge in some cinch betting.

"I can get all the Bryan money I want in Arkansas at 2 to 1 on McKinley,' "and I am taking some of it. I can hedge here

Gov. Bradley and P. Wat Hardin to Speak at the Same Place To-Day. LOUISVILLE, Kr., Nov. 1.-The campaign will be closed with a number of speeches to-morrow. The most notable will be at Lancaster, where Gov. Bradley will make an address to a big Republican meeting. The silverites have engaged P. Wat Hardin to address them. It is said that Col. Jack Chinn and several others will acc pany Hardin. Conservative men have tried to get the Popocrats to withdraw Hardin, but they refuse to do so. Blackburn will make two ad dresses, but will not go to Lancaster.

Gen. Buckner spent the day in town, but tomorrow will go to his home in Hart county to vote. He is satisfied that Kentucky will go against Bryan, and still more certain that Mo-Kinley will win. It was reported to-day that a large amount of money was received by the all-verites from Chicago and sent down into the southwestern part of the State. This is strongly Populistic, but has a large negro vote.

WHAT TEXAS WILL DO. Popocrats Say They Are Certain of Victory

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 1 .- J. W. Blake, Chairman of the State Popogratic Executive Committee, says that Bryan and Sewall will undoubtedly carry Texas by at least 60,000 majority. Further more, he says, every Democratic Lominee for Congress will be elected, and the State ticket will receive a very large plurality. The Republican committee, however, is inclined to doubt the claims as to majorities, and say that there will be a surprise for the Damocracy when of a possible total of 475,000. It looks as though Culberson, for Governor, will be defeated by Kearby, Populist due to the Republican and sound-money Democratic vote going to him. The sound-money men claim they will elect three ConBERLIN FINANCIERS ON BRYAN.

BERLIN, Nov. 1 .- The Berlin financial journals agree that if McKinley is elected affairs will remain very much as they are at present, that is to say that there will be little or no financial trade; but if Bryan should be successful there will be a financial and commercial cataclysm. European capitalists, these papers argue, must therefore prepare, should Bryan be elected, for a depreciation in the value of American securities, a large premium on gold, extensive failures of American companies having gold contracts in Europe, and the consequent failure of European and especially English capitalists, and a stoppage of European imports from America.

COUNTING ON M'KINLEY. Connecticut Mills Beginning to Hum at the Prospect of Victory. PUTNAM, Nov. 1.-In view of the steadily brightening prospect of the overwhelming success of the sound-money cause, the cotton manufacturing business all about the two eastern counties of the Nutmeg State is beginning to boom. There are many great cotton mills in this region. In fact, all eastern Connecticut is a great, busy, humming workshop of cottonmaking. About every considerable village with a stream tumbling down bill near it has its big brick or stone cotton factory, while in the populous towns and cities the number of them is from three to six or more each. Hence no district of the country gives token earlier or more readily of a quickened circulation in manufacturing and industrial channels. In Putnam the big Grosvenor cotton mills are fairly rushed with the heavy orders they have undertaken to fill, and they are working on full time with a very large force of operatives. Furthermore, the Grosvenor Dale Company is making every effort to complete its new mill and set it in operation, which will increase the company's output of goods by 30 per cent. Moreover, in order to operate it, the company will have to increase its present force of operatives by about 30 per cent. The new mill will cost about $1,000,000, and is to be equipped with 75,000 spindles.

The great Ponemah cotton mill of Taftville, three miles north of Norwich, is running mer-rily, with its army of employees, 1,200 to 1,500 strong, all fully employed. The Ponemah company produces a special and superior kind of prints, exclusively, that no other factory may make, and sells them in London in successful competition with the best British products of the M'KINLEY'S COMING TRIUMPH. Germany Will Be Surprised; if It Is Not Decisive.

BERLIN, Nov. 1 .- If the triumph of Mr. Me-Kinley at the polls is not an overwhelming one Germany will have a shock of surprise. With the exception of some special cable despatches sent by its American correspondent to the Berliner Tagebiatt, all of the advices sent by wire or mail to the Berlin press have so expressly excluded any possibility of Bryan's election that public interest in the American campaign has waned. The Socialist organ, the Vorwaeria, and the Freisinniae and other Liberal organs suggest that an uprising of the masses might defeat the combined educated and capitalistic forces, but in the face of the unvarying tenor of the news from America the public have accepted the election of McKinley as a foregone conclusion.

The Kreuz Zeitung, Conservative, discusses the question of McKinley agt. Bryan from a currency point of view, ignoring all other issues. The Kreuz inclines to the support of Mc-Kinley, as the election of a silverite like Bryan would be disastrous. The faith in McKinley's election has had its effect on the Bourse, where for the last two days American stocks have been especially firm. The expectation is that after the election there will be an increase of exports to the United States, this belief being based upon the ground that the advance in the price of grain is benefiting the American farmers, and consequently ought to lead to art increase in the demand for European goods. ALIGELD'S NEW CITIZENS.

LINCOLN, Nob., Nov. 1 .- When Mr. Bryan leaves Lincoln to-morrow morning for his flying trip through his own State he will be followed at no great distance by John P. Irish of California, who will strive to undo whatever Mr. Hryan accomplishes. This programme was decided upon by the National Democrats of Nebraska when Chairman Mark Hanna vetoed the proposition that ex-Congressman William E. Mason should perform that duty for the Republicans in Illinois. It is improbable that Mr. Irish will follow Mr. Bryan throughout the day,

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 1.-The campaign in Iowa closed last night. It has been the most active and absorbing the State ever knew. Both sides conducted vigorous and well-organized campaigns. The Republicans claim the State by 75,000 and the Popocrats say they will carry t by 15,000 to 25,000. Common opinion is that the Republicans will safely carry the State.

The Republicans claim every one of the eleven Congressmen; the Popocrats say they have a good chance to carry five. Indications are the Republicans are practically sure of nine and the Popocrats have a fighting chance for two.

Chairman Hanna Witt Remain in Chicago Until To-night-Other Leaders Have Left Town-What the "Foreign" Voters Will Bo-Sunday Meetings in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .- National headquarters of the Republican and Democratic parties were almost deserted to-day. There was no business of importance to transact. Members of the campaign committee and heads of departments had either gone home to vote or were preparing to leave the headquarters until after the decisive day and were at their desks for a short time only in the afternoon, while few visitors from outside Chicago strayed in to tell the political news or be informed before going to their homesto vote. Chairman Hanna will remain at his post here until to-morrow evening, when he will leave for Cleveland and receive the returns there. On Wednesday he proposes to visit Major McKinley, and then go to New York to return here early next week and wind up the business affairs of the headquarters. Each of the several hundred employees called to bid him good-by last night, and to each Mr. Hanna presented his photographic portrait and autograph. Mr. Hanna has made a popular

Haskell, Sergeant-at-Arms of the headquarters, has gone to Ashtabula to cast his ballot. Mr. Payne will be in charge of headquarters on election night to receive and tabulate the returns and keep Major McKinley informed of results by private wire to Cauton. The only visitor of importance at Republican headquarters was James J. Hill, President of the Great Northern Railroad, who is on his way home to Minneapolis to vote, after a trip to New York. He is a gold Democrat, and to Chief Hahn, President Hill expressed confidence that McKinley would be elected, and said St. Paul would give a big Republican majority. Commenting on the charges of intimidation of railroad employees, Mr. Hill said railroad men were too independent to be coerced; they would wote as they pleased, and because they were honest men and in favor of good money, the same as he was, he believed the bulk of the railroad men would vote for McKinley. Record in Majorities. PITTSBURGH, Nov. 1 .- Senator Quay arrived from the East this morning, and went at once to his home in Beaver. He was called up by telephone to-night and asked for an estimate on Pennsylvania's strength. He said: "A careful estimate of the State leads me to believe that Gov. Hastings's majority will be overtopped by the vote on next Tuesday, After giving the Bryan end of the affair all the best of it, conceding to them localities considered in the least doubtful, I cannot figure less than 250,000 majority for McKinley. The fight is won and the country is saved from one of the greatest dangers that has threatened it since the war. It has been a remarkably bitter campaign, and the general round up all over the country on Saturday showed conclusively how great has been the interest taken in the fight by the Republicans. From the moment that platform was promulgated at Chicago every good citigen took it on himself to see that the right should not suffer at the polls. Nobiy have they fought, fairly have they won, and
